Here's One Big One That Didn't Get Away!

Davis Lake (known as Lake No. 1). Fine for Fly Fishing

HILTON LAKES CAMP

BISHOP, CALIFORNIA - - - SEASON 1946

Fly fishing in Davis Lake. More than half the shore line has shallow water. The fisherman with hip boots can wade well out, and need not worry about the back cast.

CAMP LOCATION

Saddle horses and pack animals are necessary to reach the upper camp, which is five and one-half miles up trail from the nearest point reached by automobile. The lower camp is only headquarters for the pack train.

ACCOMMODATIONS

On account of the uncertainty of conditions the camp is open only to those who desire housekeeping accommodations. No meals will be served.

CREEK FISHING

Hilton Creek below Davis Lake at the meadow has plenty of fine trout. The stream connecting Davis and Lake 2; the stream below Lake 4 and the stream connecting Lakes 7 and 5 all afford fine fishing, and there are some big fish in these streams as well as the nice sized pan fish.

TACKLE AND SUPPLIES

Due to restricted production, our stock is limited. We will have some tackle for rent

HOW TO GET TO HILTON LAKES CAMP

From Los Angeles district travel Highway No. 395 via Mojave, Lone Pine and Bishop. At a point 31 miles north of Bishop turn left off the main highway as indicated by road sign. Follow dirt road one-half mile to lower camp.

HOW TO GO VIA BUS

Take Inland Stages at the Greyhound Station, Sixth and Los Angeles Streets, to
